

Round up EH&S

2009 International Telecommunications Safety Conference The Embassy Suites Hotel 600 Commerce Street, Fort Worth, TX 76102 September 15 – 17, 2009

Dear Fellow EH&S Professionals:

On behalf of the National Telecommunications Safety Panel, it is my pleasure to invite you to attend the 2009 International Telecommunications Safety Conference (ITSC) to be held September 15-17, 2009 at The Embassy Suites Hotel in Fort Worth, Texas. With its first class facilities and the great activities and programs that are being prepared, we expect a large turnout for this event, and we want you to be a part of the program.

The agenda is being prepared with a wide variety of environment, health and safety topics in the telecommunications industry. You don't want to miss this opportunity to meet, share, and learn from the experiences of other EH&S professionals who deal with the same challenges you face every day.

Preliminary Program and Roundtable Topics include, but are not limited to:

- Business Continuity Management
- Ergonomics
- NTSP Environmental Committee
- Tower Safety
- Sustainability, Corporate Social Responsibility
- Radio-Frequency (RF) Safety
- OSHA Regulatory Update
- Industry Benchmarking
- Telecommunications Accidents and Incidents
- Lead and Asbestos

I would also like to recognize and thank our planning teams for all their hard work this year. Tony Sipich is leading the AT&T Host Committee to provide you with a memorable conference environment and related activities. Our exciting conference program is being developed by our Program Committee, chaired by Denny Bloom with Verizon Wireless.

I look forward to seeing you all at this year's conference, so register early and make your plans to attend in September.

Marie Robinson
NTSP Chairperson

The registration fee includes the following:

- Admission to the Conference (2½ day EH&S professional development program)
- Made to order breakfast each day
- Lunch for the first two days and daily refreshments
- Welcoming Reception at the Embassy Suites Hotel
- Wednesday evening dinner at Joe T Garcia's Mexican Restaurant and entertainment at Billy Bob's "The World's Largest Honky Tonk".

Conference Check-In

A Conference check-in desk will be open from 3:00 PM - 7:00 PM on Monday, September 14th in The Embassy Suites Hotel Lobby. On Tuesday morning, September 15th, the Conference check-in desk will be open at 7:00 AM outside the meeting space on the 5th floor.

Dress Standards

Dress will be business casual for all conference activities.

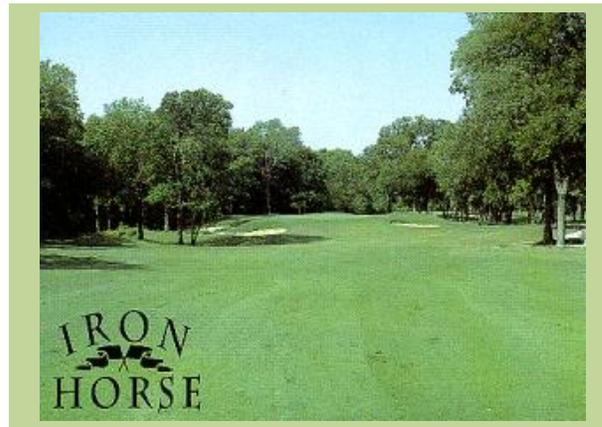

You will be provided an International Telecommunications Safety Conference badge at check-in. Please wear this badge to identify yourself at all conference events.

NETWORKING OPPORTUNITIES

Monday, September 14th

For those of you arriving a little early, an increasingly popular golf networking opportunity is planned for Monday afternoon. All skill levels are welcome and prizes will be awarded! Green fees will be approximately $40 and club rentals will be available for an additional charge. We guarantee you will have a winning experience! Additional information regarding the course will be made available soon.

If you are interested in participating or have any questions, please contact Mark Bullock at 317-265-3386, or mb4242@att.com. He will provide additional details for the event as the date approaches.

Tuesday, September 15th

A reception is scheduled for Tuesday evening at The Embassy Suites Hotel for you and any guest accompanying you. This is a great opportunity to renew existing professional contacts and make some new ones.

Wednesday, September 16th

The Wednesday evening event is a tradition from year to year and one everyone looks forward to attending. This year, our first stop of the evening is an outdoor dinner at a Fort Worth tradition since 1935, Joe T Garcia's Mexican Restaurant. You will not want to miss the wonderful food and atmosphere of Joe T's. Our next stop is another Fort Worth Tradition, Billy Bob's Honky Tonk where we will have dessert and Wild West entertainment. You might even be able to practice the two-step or line dancing.

Dinner at Joe T Garcia's Restaurant

How can you visit Fort Worth and not be a part of one of the area's most authentic Mexican traditions, a night of amazing Mexican Food in a perfect atmosphere? Joe T. Garcia's is one of the most popular restaurants in the Dallas-Forth Worth area. Established on July 4, 1935, Joe T's (the local name for this landmark restaurant) has grown and now provides indoor and outdoor seating and some of the best authentic food in the area.

Entertainment at Billy Bob's Texas

A Fort Worth landmark since 1980, Billy Bob's Texas is the world's largest honky-tonk. This place is huge (three acres!), with its own indoor rodeo arena for professional bull riding, a Texas-size dance floor, dozens of bar stations, plus restaurants, arcade games, a Wall of Fame with celebrity handprints, and a general store. It is also an amazing 8-time winner of country music's "Club of the Year." Be sure to check the concert schedule on the Billy Bob's Web site – your favorite performer just might be in town!

COWBOYS AND CULTURE - ONLY IN FORT WORTH!

Fort Worth is the 17th-largest city in the United States and one of "America's Most Livable Communities." Today, Fort Worth, Texas is a thriving center of culture and commerce. Visitors are often surprised by everything Fort Worth has to offer: the Historic Stockyards, remarkable museums, a dazzling downtown area, Texas Motor Speedway, spectacular annual events and a lot more.

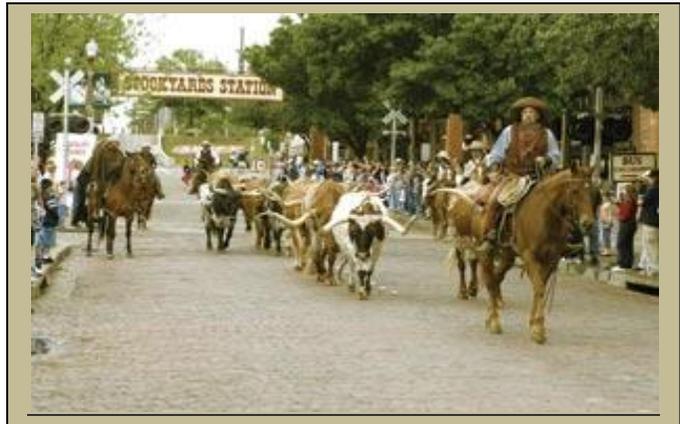

Choose an experience!!

Western Heritage - You'll find evidence of Fort Worth's legendary past everywhere you go - downtown's Sundance Square, the Cultural District, and especially the Fort Worth Stockyards are a few of the many places to visit.

From a daily cattle drive to the annual Fort Worth Stock Show, no other city offers so many ways to relive this glorious Western heritage. That's why Fort Worth is known as the city "Where the West Begins."

Museums and Culture - In Fort Worth, you can explore many museums that are world-famous for the beauty of their architecture and the quality of their collections.

The Fort Worth Cultural District, home to five wonderful museums in a relaxing, park-like setting is a great place to start your tour. Throughout the city, you'll also find museums devoted to Western heritage and Fort Worth's colorful past. It's no wonder Fort Worth is considered "the museum capital of the Southwest."

You'll also find a magnificent and thriving performing arts scene in Fort Worth, including symphony, ballet, opera, and live theater.

Dining - The city is famous for its great steakhouses, barbecue, and Texas cuisine. You'll also find fabulous restaurants preparing Mexican, Italian, French, Greek, Thai, Pacific Rim, and Southwestern selections.

Nightlife - When the sun goes down, Fort Worth really comes alive.

In downtown, Sundance Square provides sidewalks filled with people on the town, enjoying the many Fort Worth nightlife opportunities such as nightclubs, restaurants, movies, and live theaters.

Up north in the Stockyards, there's always plenty of fun brewing in the Western-style saloons. And Billy Bob's Texas is a terrific Fort Worth nightlife choice for out-of-towners and locals alike.

Fort Worth nightlife also has a proud musical tradition. Across the city, you'll find national and local acts performing in a wide variety of venues — from roadhouses to refined concert halls.

Shopping - Shopping in Fort Worth is an attraction in itself. Whatever you're looking for, you're very likely to find it here – from fabulous to funky, from classy to casual. The city is home to national department stores, one-of-a-kind boutiques, upscale shops, flea markets, antique stores, and some of the finest malls in the Southwest. Plus, Fort Worth is perhaps the best place in America to find high-quality Western wear.
