

Symposium Sponsorship Program

Get ready to make a lasting impact on the Environmental, Health & Safety Communications industry!

We are pleased to announce the 2024 Environmental, Health & Safety Communications Panel Symposium.

The Symposium will take place at the Royal Sonesta in Minneapolis, MN from April 30 to May 2, 2024. This event is designed to bring together the leading minds in EHS communication companies for an unforgettable experience.

With the success and positive feedback from our previous sponsors, we are excited to continue our Sponsorship Program in 2024. This program offers companies involved in providing EHS services within the communications industry a unique opportunity to showcase their expertise and gain unparalleled exposure to a targeted audience. By joining our sponsorship ranks, you will not only support the EHSCP and the host company but also position your brand as a leader in the EHS communication industry.

The Symposium Sponsorship Program provides an excellent platform to connect with the industry's most influential professionals and decision-makers. As a sponsor, you will have the chance to build relationships, forge partnerships, and gain valuable insights into the latest trends and advancements in environmental, health, and safety communications.

Throughout the event, attendees will be immersed in a series of stimulating panel discussions led by renowned experts in the field. These thought-provoking sessions will delve into the most pressing challenges and emerging opportunities in EHS communication, covering topics such as risk management, crisis communication, regulatory compliance, and sustainability.

In addition to the captivating sessions, the Symposium Sponsorship Program offers a range of exclusive benefits to our esteemed sponsors. From prominent branding opportunities to networking events, your company will be at the forefront of this event, ensuring maximum visibility and recognition among your target audience.

Don't miss this exceptional opportunity to elevate your brand, connect with industry leaders, and contribute to the advancement of Environmental, Health & Safety Communications. Secure your sponsorship today and be part of the 2024 Environmental, Health & Safety Communications Panel Symposium.

The two sponsorship levels are listed on the following page. If you are interested in helping to sponsor the Symposium, please reach out to Brian Wiedower at Brian.C.Wiedower@t-mobile.com.

Join us at the EHSCP Symposium and connect with industry experts, gain valuable insights, and contribute to the advancement of EHS in the communications industry.
